Feast of Christ the King

24th November 2013

Dear Parishioners,

It is a great privilege that we should have within our parish ongoing Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, affording people an opportunity to 'keep watch and pray'. Nobody could possibly estimate the untold blessings and graces that have been enjoyed by countless families and individuals over the many years that Exposition has been taking place in the Oratory. In that context I would like to compliment all those people who turn up regularly and faithfully each week at their assigned time on the rota as well as all others who come at their own time. Thanks also to each of the co-ordinators who ensure that all hours are covered.

On this week-end when we have the traditional 'Forty Hours', I would like to make a special appeal to many parishioners to consider 'spending an hour with the Lord', not only at this special time, but making it a regular weekly occurrence. If you think you could make such a commitment, I would ask you to give your name to Sr Anthony or to Charlie in the Bookshop.

As we conclude the Year of Faith, the "Forty Hours", on this occasion, is being held in the Chapel of the former Convent of Mercy. Many parishioners have happy memories of this beautiful building, described by some as an oasis of peace and a place saturated in prayer.

I invite people to "make a visit" during the designated times on Saturday evening or Sunday. I would ask you to use the backdoor, adjacent to the car park. On Sunday evening (24th) we will conclude the period of Adoration with a Holy Hour in the Convent Chapel at 7pm.

As we celebrate the Feast of Christ the King, we pray that we too, will one day, hear those reassuring words, "Indeed, I promise you, today you will be with me in paradise".

Yours sincerely,

Colum Curry PP

PARISH VISITATION

In keeping with the recommendation of Pope Francis to "bring the Gospel to the marketplace", Dungannon Parish will be embarking on a pilot visitation project called "The Galilee Project". All the priests along with a small team of parishioners will visit the homes of those people living in Lambfield developments in the coming weeks. On the first visit they will distribute an information leaflet with details of Mass times etc along with a short questionnaire seeking feedback on people's experience of what it means to be part of this parish. Each home will also be given an opportunity to have their family registered as members of the parish, if they so wish. It is hoped that, in due course, this initiative could be replicated throughout other areas of the parish.
