Fourth Sunday of Lent

30th March 2014

Dear Parishioners,

To lose the gift of sight or to be born blind is a thought that frightens most people. In today's Gospel Jesus meets a man who is blind from birth and he heals him. This was surely a blessing beyond compare. But there was more to it than that. Jesus introduced the blind man not only to daylight, but to faith; he helped him to see not only the wonders of the ordinary everyday world around him, but also to recognize in faith the presence of God within him. This is an ability we all need - to be able to see God's hand in our lives. The darkness of selfishness can block our seeing Christ in our brothers and sisters in need and our recognizing God's will when he calls us to be heroic in living out our baptismal privileges. Today is a day to ask the Lord to restore our vision as his followers and to give us the courage like the man in the gospel to proclaim to one and all that Jesus is the greatest prophet, the Son of God, to whom we give our allegiance.

Today is also known as 'Mothering Sunday', which owes its origins to Mother Church. On the fourth Sunday of Lent each year we rejoice that many people throughout the world, and especially in mission countries, are preparing for new life in the womb of the Church.

In this part of the world we are more inclined to refer to this day as 'Mother's Day'. And so we pray for all mothers, especially:

Sacred Heart

St. Malachy's

- for those with difficult homes, whose children are more of a problem than a blessing;
- for those who find it hard to make ends meet, or go short themselves or the sake of their children;
- for those mothers who are trying to make Christ real in their homes through prayer and good example;
- for those with loved ones far away;
- for those who have died, that they may have the fullness of love and peace in God's presence;
- for each one according to her need, that the Lord may draw all mothers closer to his heart and keep them in his care.

With every blessing, Colum Curry PP
