Dear Parishioners,

Preparing for Christmas can be a hectic time for all of us. I'm reminded of a story told about a priest who worked in a parish in Westminster in London. During the weeks of Advent he had spent endless hours hearing confessions in a stuffy, cramped confessional box in the cathedral. Late on Christmas Eve, feeling totally exhausted after hours of duty, he found the curtain of his box pulled aside by a tiny lady demanding to know if he were hearing confessions. "No, ma'am", came the exasperated reply, "I'm driving this bus to Piccadilly". I recall that story by way of appeal – please take note of the Penitential Service on Monday in St Patrick's at 7.30pm and the arrangements for confessions as published in this week's parish bulletin and on the notice board of the chapels.

We should all make an effort to avail of the Sacrament of Reconciliation at this time, no matter how long we've been away; and there are ample opportunities to do so.

On behalf of the other priests, I wish to take this opportunity to thank all parishioners for your support and co-operation in so many ways throughout the past year; we wish each of you a very happy and peaceful Christmas. May the Lord surround your homes with his love and joy and may he keep you safe at all times.

"Lord, little one and mighty one: be born in the Bethlehem of every town of the earth that has faith in you; in the Bethlehem of every home that has love for you; in the Bethlehem of every heart that hopes for you. Above all be born with your healing and peace in the houses of hearts divided by sin, and haunted by loss and loneliness. Be born among us and with us".

With every blessing,
Colum Curry PP
