Dear Parishioners,

I am writing these few lines from Lough Derg! I hasten to add, I am not doing the 'Three Day Pilgrimage' which is available until 13th August, and is being well attended during this Jubilee Year of Mercy.

I am here, with the approval of the Prior, as a 'non-pilgrim' to help out a little with some of the programme. It is a privilege to do so and to experience Lough Derg from another perspective as well as meeting people from every walk of life and many places, including Dungannon and district!

This Island, which is saturated with the prayer of countless pilgrims who, for centuries walked this hallowed ground in their bare feet, is a very special place. While I acknowledge it might not be for everyone, I get drawn back each year, and I come back, because for me personally nothing can quite compare to what I receive here. I often think of what St Bernadette is supposed to have said about Lourdes: "To those who have never been, words cannot describe it. To those who have been, words are not necessary". It is, undoubtedly, very unique and very special.

This year, I feel I have good reason to come, even though I can't follow the programme in its usual rigorous format. I come in thanksgiving for God's goodness and for all of you, and many others, who have been so supportive with your prayer, your kindness and your affection over recent weeks.

I thank God all is well and I look forward to returning to parish duty in the near future. In the meantime, I pray God's protection on all of you and send my best wishes across the waters and hills of Donegal.

With every blessing,
Colum Curry PP

Prayer for Families

We bless your name, O Lord, for sending your own incarnate Son, to become part of a family, so that, as he lived its life, he would experience its worries and its joys. We ask you, Lord, to protect and watch over this family, so that in the strength of your grace its members may enjoy prosperity, possess the priceless gift of your peace, and, as the Church alive in the home, bear witness in this world to your glory. We ask this though Christ our Lord. Amen.

THANKS

The Presentation Brothers would like to thank the parish community in Dungannon, who were so supportive since the death of Br Majella Burke. We would like to extend our gratitude to those who organised Br Majella's Month's Mind Mass, everyone who attended it and St Patrick's Primary School for providing hospitality and refreshment after the Mass. Your help and prayers were greatly appreciated by the Brothers.
