Dear Parishioners

Bidding farewell to a loved one is not easy, and is something we never fully grow accustomed to doing. The Ascension marks the end of the earthly mission of Jesus and his glorious return to the Father. He had achieved the work he was sent to do. No doubt there was joy in heaven to greet him but the apostles must have felt great sadness at his departure. However, his final words, "I am with you always. Go, make disciples of all nations", were full of comfort yet urgent in meaning. Not only was Jesus not abandoning them – he was entrusting them with the mission to make God's merciful and gracious love known to all through lives of joyful and selfless service. In the apparent absence of Jesus the disciples are to go forward with courage. They have a vital and essential role to play in announcing the salvation Jesus has won on Calvary, by transforming death into the dawn of new life. Jesus will no longer be present in a human body but his place will be taken by the Holy Spirit who will be their strength and their guide.

Where Jesus has gone we hope to follow. The road ahead for us is the same as for those early apostles – we are to do our bit to build up the Kingdom of God in our own time and place. God is counting on us now. Our prayer is that Jesus will renew us and re-energise us with the power of the Holy Spirit so that our eyes may be opened to what we need to do and that our minds may be conformed to what is God's will for us.

Fr Kevin Donaghy PP
