Dear Parishioners

MISSION SUNDAY

This gospel reminds us that we are members of God's kingdom and citizens of the country in which we live, with obligations to both. Religion and politics do mix and overlap and crucial issues of conscience occasionally arise. We are obliged to bring the gospel of Jesus into every aspect of our lives so as to influence our thoughts, our decisions and our actions. Christians living in the world bring a certain positive tone to society. We take on the task of being the saving, caring, hands of Jesus, spreading the good news in many different ways. We are called to show a proper interest in the well-being of society. Living in an imperfect world highlights the need for men and women with sound Christian values to be active and vocal in public life, never afraid to express a Christian viewpoint when the need arises. The Christian vision shines a warm light of faith and hope and offers spiritual and moral values that are for the benefit of all. Religion and culture, faith and politics, work best for everyone when they are positively intertwined. On Mission Sunday, we pray that we may each REACH OUT AND SPREAD THE JOY and so offer a Christian influence and action to our community, our country and our world. We pray for missionaries, especially those natives of our own parish that the Lord may sustain them in the great work they do.

Rev Kevin Donaghy PP

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

Today is Mission Sunday and the Holy Father invites all Catholics to contribute to a special collection. Every person in every parish in every country where the Church is present will be celebrating together and sharing what they have, no matter how little. It is the one Sunday in the year when the Mass is celebrated exclusively for missionary activity. Donations are collected at these worldwide Masses and they go to support churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is new, young or poor. It is also the one Sunday in the year when your generosity goes directly to help mission parishes overseas and reach out with Jesus' message of hope and love. World Missions Ireland is the Holy Father's official charity for overseas mission. It is responsible for coordinating Mission Sunday in Ireland and, through local bishops, churches, and missionary congregations around the world ensures that resources are distributed equitably and justly on the basis of need. In offering our prayers, we join with missionaries everywhere in communion and compassion to support them in spreading the Good News, and by giving a donation we respond to Christ's call to feed the hungry and clothe the naked so please give what you can. Thank You.

CHRISTIANS IN THE HOLYLAND

A missionary group from Bethlehem, in the Holy Land will be visiting St Brigid's and St Malachy's Churches on 28 & 29 Oct and St Patrick's on 4 & 5 Nov to briefly talk about the Holy Land and to sell religious articles made out of olive wood to help and support poor Christian families - any help you could give them will be highly appreciated.
