Dear Parishioners

God's call to repentance is based on his love and compassion for us. It affirms that God believes we are worth another chance, another opportunity to do better. It also means that God wants us to feel that we are worthy of his love and compassion and to know that God wants to help us as we try to do better. The early apostles sensed that Jesus was inviting them to a higher way of life – he gave them a glimpse of the greatest of their potential. They reacted with enthusiasm and they left everything to follow Jesus.

The invitation to repentance and to a fresh start is open to all of us, all of the time. Deep down we know that we are not fully, not yet, the people God is calling us to be. The Good News is that God's loving mercy is available to all, whoever we are and whatever we have done. By choosing to repent we can change our lives – and see more and more glimpses of the greatness God has planned for us. Jesus does not invite us to join him in a dull and dreary way of life but rather in an exciting project that seeks to transform families, communities, nations and the world into places where the love of God flows freely and love of neighbour is the hallmark of our nature. Jesus set out to make a difference – he invites us to join him in doing the same.

Very Rev Dean Kevin Donaghy PP VG

We wish to thank all those who contributed to our recent annual Church gate collection, which amounted to £5,973. In 2017, apart from carrying out 399 home visits, the Conference organised a Senior Citizens evening for 105 people and also a family day out for 157 children and parents. In addition, at Christmas, we distributed 220 hampers, brought toys to 390 children and delivered gifts to two nursing homes. We can assure you that your continued support is of enormous assistance to us in identifying and providing help to all those in genuine need throughout the community.

If you would like to become involved in organising any of the above activities and become a member of the St Vincent de Paul Conference, please contact any of our members or call at the shop in Union Place.
