Dear Parishioners

Archbishop Eamon Martin in a recent newspaper article wrote the following:

The custom of blessing homes, especially at Easter time, invites God to "circle us" around and accompany us in the ups and downs of family life. When Jesus sent out his first missionary disciples he told them to greet people in their homes with the words: "Peace to this house". His own Easter message on entering the room where the disciples had gathered after the resurrection was: "Peace be with you".

With this in mind, we might pray this Easter season in the style of our ancestors:

Circle us Risen Lord, Keep protection near, and danger afar.

Circle us Risen Lord, Keep light near and darkness afar.

Circle us Risen Lord, Keep peace within, Keep evil out.

Circle us Risen Lord, Keep hope within, Keep doubt without.
