The Heart of Living and Dying

To mark "Dying Matters" Awareness Week we are hosting public events to talk about living and dying. Dying Matters Awareness Week aims to raise awareness of the importance of talking more openly about dying, death and bereavement and of making your wishes known. You are invited to join us as we begin a conversation about what matters to me in how I live my life and how I die when that time comes. Fri 18 May, 10.30am – 12.30pm, Quinn's Corner, Dungannon. Dear Parishioners

There is no getting away from the fact that the most important thing Jesus asks of us, and commands us to do, is to love one another. The one requirement that goes with us receiving the gift of God's love is that we must commit to sharing that love with others. Love for those whom we can see brings us as close as is possible on earth into the love of God whom we cannot see.

As followers of Jesus we are called to be persons for others, following the example of Jesus. Love is a form of self-sacrifice which requires us to give – not just of the things we possess, but of ourselves, our time and our talents. Wherever there is love, God is present. God's love for us exceeds anything we can ever imagine. It is good to reflect on the wonder of God's love for us which is truly an invitation to share his divine life. Living out the commandment of love draws us into the family of God, into a network of caring and sharing where we experience an abundance of rewards in happiness, fulfilment and blessing in this life and the sure hope of God's everlasting love in the life to come.

A prayer for Children and Young people

God of love, we praise and thank you for the wonderful gift of life. Help us to cherish this gift in ourselves and in all whom we meet.

Bless all children that they may know the joy of being alive and that we may help them towards a great future. A future where they may know your saving grace, and where they may help to build your heavenly kingdom here on earth.

Bless all young women and men. Be with them through these years of change in their lives, as they move from childhood to adulthood, so that nothing may damage their joy and their hope.

Bless especially all those in our parish who are doing exams at this time. May they have every success, not just in their exams but also in their lives. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
