TALKING BEFORE MASS

Pope Francis said this at a recent General Audience in Rome:

'When we go to Mass, maybe we arrive five minutes before, and we start to chit-chat with those around us. However, it is not a moment for chit-chat. It is a moment of silence for preparing ourselves, a time for the heart to collect itself in order to prepare for the encounter with Jesus. Silence is so important.'

Please bear the Holy Father's teaching in mind, in order to show respect for the Blessed Sacrament, and for our fellow parishioners who are praying. Please show a good example to those around you.

Fifth Sunday of the Year

10 February 2019

Dear Parishioners,

Peter and his companions, professional fishermen, knew from experience that fish only come close to the surface at night, in search of food. Now these experienced fishermen are being told by a carpenter to put out their nets during the day. Something about Jesus caused Simon Peter to follow the advice of Jesus. When the mighty catch of fish came in Peter recognised the hand of God in what happened and at the same time felt overcome by his own sinfulness. So he advised Jesus to go away and not be bothered with the likes of him.

But Jesus did not take Peter's advice to put a distance between himself and sinners. Jesus did not come to be distant from people – rather, his whole mission was, and is, to “seek out and save the lost” (Luke 19:10). So Jesus travels into people's lives, not away from them. He mingles with sinners, he enters their homes, meets their families, eats at their table, listens to their stories and calls them to a new way of life. All through his life, Jesus was never far from sinners. And on the cross he died between two of them.

Once Peter acknowledges and admits his sinfulness Jesus moves the conversation on and invites Peter to work with him in bringing people closer to God. It's the same for us. Jesus does not write us off because we are sinners – he believes that sinners have a future, not just a past. He sees beyond the sin to the worth and the potential of the sinner. You and me as well.
