Baptism of the Lord

12 January 2020

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

As we face into another year, it's a good time to reflect on the reality that each of us, in our deepest selves, is a mystery: Why am I here? Where am I going? How should I live? The risk in our present culture is to sleepwalk through life, to be satisfied with a merely material existence. But the "human project" is much greater. Each of us is really on a pilgrimage, a quest to become my true self, in the image and likeness of God.

My truest self is found by being open to God, in whom we live and move and have our being. By following close to Jesus, guided by his teaching and example; by listening to our conscience and to our inner selves, we come home to God and to true and lasting peace with ourselves and others. We are baptised as brothers and sisters of Jesus that we might become more like Jesus - our brother, our friend and our Saviour.
