Fifth Sunday of the year

9 February 2020

Dear Parishioners

Today's gospel reminds us of our noble calling to bring Jesus into our world. Jesus has placed his Good News into our hands and he depends on us to proclaim it. As salt adds flavour to food, Christianity adds flavour to life by bringing joy and happiness and genuine kindness to those with whom we share our lives. As light helps us to see our way, Christianity helps us to live correctly and to keep society wholesome. Both salt and light are ordinary, everyday things: Jesus is telling us that it is in the ordinary, everyday things of life that we can reflect his presence through our kindness and our care. When our prayer and worship guides us forward to do good for others the flavour of Christianity is spread around and the light of Jesus Christ brings sparkle, joy and hope for all to see.

*You know my wants, my troubles, my sufferings. Deign to cast upon me a look of mercy.
